

Driving the Fight Against Human Trafficking

Multi-Faceted Approach

Policy

UPS strictly prohibits its employees from engaging in trafficking in persons, procuring commercial sex acts, and using forced labor

Education

UPS offers one of the largest educational awareness programs in the transportation industry with Truckers Against Trafficking (TAT)

Leadership

UPS provides thought leadership on cross-industry initiatives, board service and ambassador training with UPSers

Philanthropy

We invest millions in global organizations that are combating human trafficking, supporting survivors, and educating the community

Key Partnerships in 2022

Impacted 145 youth through legal advocacy, trauma-informed case management, group therapy and empowering activities

COR's House of Cherith provides job training and placement for survivors with an 80% success rate for sustained placement

Surpassed 100,000 total UPSers trained to recognize and report the signs of human trafficking alongside six TAT Ambassadors

Provided trauma-informed approaches to over 500 survivors of human trafficking, sexual assault and domestic violence

Impacted 177 women through the Women's Academy, a program that significantly reduces the gap of re-exploitation

Supported 350 survivors by providing job training and safe, stable employment via the Safe Jobs Collaborative

Leadership in Action

UPS provides in-kind labor and support for the Freedom Drivers Project, a mobile 18-wheeler exhibit that educates audiences about the realities of domestic sex trafficking.

11,000+ FDP miles hauled

3.9 million viewers

20 UPS FDP-certified drivers and guides

UPS Executives serve on appointed board positions across the anti-human trafficking space, supporting Truckers Against Trafficking nationally and Wellspring Living in our HQ city Atlanta.

UPS also serves on the GRACE Commission (Georgians for Refuge, Action, Compassion, and Education), the state's cross-sectoral governing body to fight human trafficking.
